RE: UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT for the Northern District of Illinois – Eastern Division

Plaintiff(s):

Charles Hurt

VS

Defendant(s):

ScriptPro LLC

III. Statement of Claim

E. The facts of my case are as follows.

1. Plaintiff Charles Hurt is a multi-racial African-American, United States citizen of multi-ethnic descent from the state of Michigan, who currently resides in Chicago, IL.
2. Defendant provides pharmacies with powerful robotics, software, and financial tools to grow revenue and leverage automation. The company develops, provides robotics-based pharmacy management, workflow, and telepharmacy systems.
3. Defendant is a pharmacy automation company that staffs more than 500+ employees, with an approximate annual revenue exceeding more than $100 million dollars, and a corporate office site located in the Kansas City area.
4. In or around June 2021, Plaintiff applied for a Training Specialist position at Defendant.
5. In or around July 2021, Plaintiff received a verbal job offer from Defendant at a rate of $26/hr per hour, whereafter Defendant specified Plaintiff's yearly rate of pay was estimated to be in excess of $50,000, followed by a written employment agreement.
6. In or around the first half of the month of August 2021, Plaintiff was selected by Plaintiff's supervisor to obtain what was supposed to be travel-specific information to be collected from Plaintiff, however Defendant insisted questioning Plaintiff's rights, protections and identities under the Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, leading up to the events that resulted in Plaintiff's wrongful termination.
7. Plaintiff alleges disparate treatment on the basis of race and religious belief with regards to Defendant's employee onboarding process, wherein Defendant allowed Plaintiff's white (Caucasian) Training Specialist co-workers to continue to travel and work for company, but disallowed Plaintiff from doing so.

8. Plaintiff was not given reasonable accommodation to complete work assignment as needed. Defendant allowed their white Training Specialist(s) to continue to work and obtain benefits, whereas Plaintiff, being a qualified African-American employee, experienced a hostile work environment, a violation of employment rights and suffered a loss of wages originating from the amount of hours Defendant planned for Plaintiff to work for in their employment agreement.
9. Per the statement of claims set forth herein and any adverse action taken against Plaintiff and/or pain and suffering inflicted upon Plaintiff by Defendant, Plaintiff seeks an injunction requesting monetary relief from Defendant as court deems justiable.
10. After Defendant's collection of Plaintiff's protected information (including but not limited to, Plaintiff's religious observances and details of Plaintiff's national ethic origin), Defendant then disclosed the information with negligence in violation of Plaintiff's rights, privacy and federal law to other coworkers employed at Defendant.
11. Following conversations amongst Plaintiff's supervisor with employees from Defendant's Human Resources (HR) Department and a number of other employees at Defendant (outside of HR), Plaintiff was notified during the week of August 16, 2021 by Defendant's Human Resources Department that Defendant will no longer deploy Plaintiff to work for further employment at Defendant (despite Defendant scheduling Plaintiff to travel for work deployment, like Plaintiff's other co-workers of other racial backgrounds were allowed to continue to do at Defendant).
12. In Plaintiff's assigned job position, Plaintiff was employed to work in a bilingual capacity using French and English as a means of facilitating bilingual language communications.
13. Plaintiff has suffered loss of work opportunities, loss of all coverage for medical, health and dental benefits from not receiving employment benefits as outlined in job offer letter & in Defendant's employment agreement regarding employer's obligations to employees.
14. Plaintiff believes to be discriminated against because of his race, Black, color, orangish, religion, and/or national origin (American/Canadian), in violation of Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended.

15. Defendant had a legal employment duty to Plaintiff which Defendant failed to adequately fulfill.
16. During the week of August 23, 2021, following Plaintiff's outreach to Defendant to inform Human Resources Department of the ongoing discriminatory activities conducted at Defendant, Defendant punished Plaintiff by ordering Plaintiff to "cease and desist" contact with any employees at Defendant.
17. Following Defendant's actions taken with malice and/or disregard towards Plaintiff, Plaintiff has not been allowed to continue work at Defendant since August 2021.
18. In accordance with Defendant's employment agreement, employees at Defendant are subject to a non-compete agreement which restricts opportunities that (former) employees at Defendant may apply for following employment.
19. Included in Defendant's employment contractual agreement, Plaintiff was guaranteed employment for a minimum of two years at Defendant.
20. Plaintiff has suffered severe emotional distress and been subject to loss wages as a result of termination from employment at Defendant.
- 21. According to Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, this law is a federal law that protects employees against discrimination based on certain specified characteristics: race, color, national origin, sex, and religion.
- 22. Under Title VII, an employer may not discriminate with regard to any term, condition, or privilege of employment. Areas that may give rise to violations include recruiting, hiring, promoting, transferring, training, disciplining, discharging, assigning work, measuring performance, or providing benefits.
- 23. Title VII applies to employers, such as Defendant, in the private sector that has 15 or more employees. Title VII is enforced by the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission. Defendant, having over 100 employees in the private sector, is subject to the same expectations as other public or private sector employers, in regards to the Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 as federal law.

24. No person employed by a company covered by Title VII, or applying to work for that company, can be denied employment or treated differently with regard to any workplace decision on the basis of perceived racial, religious, national, sexual, or religious characteristics.
25. Defendant is an equal opportunity employer (company).
26. Plaintiff has experienced, including but not limited to, mental anguish, loss wages, loss of benefits, reputational damage, deteriorated relationships and has had an onslaught of panic-attacks and been diagnosed with major depression connected to the events of factual nexus stemming from the discriminatory treatment perpetuated by Defendant.
27. Defendant has additionally retaliated against Plaintiff.
28. The employer (Defendant) is vicariously liable under the doctrine of respondeat superior for the wrongful conduct of its employee (Plaintiff); and (2) the employer (Defendant) is directly liable to the plaintiff because of the employer's direct or indirect gross negligence, recklessness, wantonness or willfulness.

RE: PAGE 5 OF COMPLAINT OF EMPLOYMENT DISCRIMINATION

PRAYER OF RELIEF:

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court:

A. Issue a declaratory judgment that Defendant's termination of Plaintiff's employment (a) constitutes federal legal action as a result of being in violation of Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, and (b) violates Plaintiff's constitutional rights.

Plaintiff incorporates by reference all of the preceding paragraphs of this Complaint as though fully set forth herein. Wherein the matter in controversy, either due in whole or part to Defendant's negligence, malicious intent and/or intentional illegal actions, has adversely affected Plaintiff, Plaintiff requests monetary relief in an amount in excess of one million dollars ($1,000,000).

B. Issue injunctive relief compelling Defendant to process an award to Plaintiff in excess of the sum or value of twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000), no later than January 31, 2022 (or amended to receive at next earliest possibility, estimated around or before March 7, 2022).

C. Encourage or prompt Defendant(s) to release Plaintiff from Defendant's non-compete agreement ("Covenant Not to Compete") as outlined in Defendant's employment agreement to Plaintiff.

D. Encourage or prompt Defendant(s) to train staff in accordance with EEOC guidelines for a safe, productive discrimination-free work environment.

E. Encourage or prompt Defendant(s) to implement just, enforceable concrete anti-discrimination policies into company's employment agreement in accordance with federal law.

F. Award Plaintiff attorney's fees, related costs, and expenses of all litigation in accordance with law.

G. Award Plaintiff all such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and equitable.
